Short description

The Self-Adhesive Film PP Permanent is a premium polypropylene (PP) film designed for high-performance applications that require durability and long-lasting adhesion.

This film is ideal for various printing needs, providing a smooth, consistent surface that ensures excellent print quality. The permanent adhesive is engineered to offer a strong, reliable bond to a wide variety of substrates, making it a versatile choice for many different uses.
Key Features:
• Durable Polypropylene Material: Made from high-quality PP, this film is resistant to tearing, moisture, and various environmental factors, ensuring longevity and resilience in demanding conditions.
• Permanent Adhesive: The permanent adhesive backing guarantees a strong and lasting bond to various surfaces, including metals, plastics, and other challenging materials.
• High-Quality Print Surface: The film's surface is optimized for excellent print clarity, making it suitable for producing vivid, detailed images and text.
• B1 Size Sheets: Available in B1 format, each pack contains 100 sheets, making it ideal for larger print runs or commercial applications.
Applications:
• Outdoor Signage: Ideal for creating durable outdoor signs that need to withstand harsh weather conditions.
• Product Labels: Perfect for labeling products where long-lasting adhesion and durability are essential, especially in industrial or high-traffic environments.
• Promotional Materials: Suitable for producing high-quality promotional materials that require a professional finish and strong adhesion.
This self-adhesive polypropylene film is an excellent choice for anyone seeking a durable, high-performance material for a variety of printing applications. Its permanent adhesive and robust PP construction ensure that your prints will maintain their quality and adhesion over time, even in challenging environments.
