Short description

The Self-Adhesive Paper Martelé Blanc is a premium textured paper designed for applications that require a refined, sophisticated appearance combined with reliable adhesive properties.

The Martelé Blanc paper offers a unique hammered texture, making it an ideal choice for labels, invitations, and other printed materials that demand an elegant and tactile finish.
Key Features:
• Textured Surface: The Martelé Blanc paper features a distinctive hammered texture that adds a touch of elegance and sophistication to any project. This surface finish is perfect for high-end labels, invitations, and luxury packaging, providing a tactile experience that stands out.
• Crisp White Color: The paper’s crisp white color ensures excellent print contrast, making your text and designs stand out sharply. This is particularly beneficial for printing detailed graphics, logos, or text that needs to be easily readable.
• Self-Adhesive Backing: Equipped with a strong adhesive backing, this paper is easy to apply to various surfaces, ensuring that your labels or other printed items stay securely in place. The adhesive is designed to perform well on a wide range of materials, including cardboard, plastic, and metal.
• B2 Size Format: Available in the B2 size format, this product provides ample space for larger labels or multiple smaller items per sheet. The package contains 200 sheets, making it suitable for both small-scale and larger projects.
• High-Quality Printing: The Martelé Blanc paper is compatible with a variety of printing technologies, delivering sharp, clear text and vivid images. Its textured surface adds depth and dimension to your prints, enhancing the overall visual impact.
Applications:
• Luxury Product Labels: Ideal for labeling premium products, such as wines, spirits, or gourmet foods, where a refined and elegant label can enhance the product's perceived value.
• Invitations and Stationery: Perfect for creating high-quality invitations, greeting cards, or other stationery items that require a touch of class and a unique tactile feel.
• Packaging: Suitable for use in luxury packaging, where the combination of texture and high print quality can significantly enhance the unboxing experience.
• Branding and Marketing: Great for creating distinctive branding materials, such as tags, labels, or promotional items, where a premium look and feel are essential.
The Self-Adhesive Paper Martelé Blanc B2 is the perfect choice for professionals looking to add an element of luxury and sophistication to their printed materials. Whether used for product labeling, invitations, or high-end stationery, this textured paper offers the quality and aesthetic appeal needed to make a lasting impression.
